

Mrs. Pratibha Rahul Adnaik has completed her D. Pharm from Institute of Pharmacy, Pune in 2005, B. Pharm from Government College of Pharmacy, Karad in 2008 and M. Pharm from Bharati Vidyapeeth's College of Pharmacy, CBD Belapur, Navi Mumbai 2010. She is currently pursuing PhD at Savitribai Phule Pune University. She has worked as assistant professor at RCP Kasegaon from 2011 to 2018. Currently she is working as Assistant Professor (Dept. of Pharmaceutical Chemistry) at Anandi Pharmacy College, Kalambe tarf Kale, Kolhapur. She has total 13 years of teaching experience. She has taught Inorganic and Organic chemistry to the D. Pharm and B. Pharm students. She has guided B. Pharm students in numerous projects. She has published various research papers in various national and international journals of repute. She has total 05 book publications. She has filed 2 Indian patents. She has attended different national and international conferences and workshops. She has achieved different awards in poster and review article writing competitions. Her profile reflects a dedicated educator and researcher contributing to the academic community.